

Two-day Fast Track 6302 (7303 PTTLS) Course

6302 (formerly 7303) is the starting point for anyone involved in the delivery of learning. The course is part of the National Qualifications framework and is set at Level 3.

For those people who are experienced tutors/trainers we are able to offer a two day 6302 Preparing to Teach in the Lifelong Learning Sector course.

What are the entry requirements?

Students wishing to enroll on this course must currently be practicing in a teaching/training role.

There is a considerable amount of written work to be completed. This will involve reading of supplied books, researching specific topics, applying theory to practical scenarios and demonstrating knowledge and understanding through written work. Therefore, candidates for this course should have a good standard of written and verbal communication skills.

How long is the course?

There are multiple assignments which need to be completed by the delegate prior to attending a 2 day tutor led training course – we will mentor delegates through this pre-course stage.

How will I be assessed?

The course is assessed by completing two assignments, this includes a 30 minute micro-teach which will be delivered on day two.

How much does it cost?

£2250 + vat for up to six delegates. Additional delegates – to a maximum of 12 – would be charged at £275 + vat each.
